Hon. B. B. French, Commissioner of Public Buildings, is taking steps to refurnish the White House before the close of the month.

The jury on the inquest in the case of Mary Ann Gliroy, frozen, one of the passengers of the ship Neptune, concluded their investigation last night. They reprimanded Capt. Peabody, and found Dr. Herrick guilty of neglect and incompetency, and considered his case a proper one to go before the grand jury. He was placed in the charge of the police to await the action of the criminal authorities.

The Times' special says:
Strong representations are being made by influential parties in New York, in favor of the pardon of Solomon Kohnstamm, who was sentenced to twenty year's imprisonment on a charge of having defrauded the Government.

Rear Admiral Smith of the Navy Deartment, is now introducing into the Brooklyn Navy Yard as an experiment, a new system of mustering the men, which promises to save the Government a large amount of money and time and check frauds. It is similar to that in vogue in the Central Park.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16.—The Ranchero of the 5th contains the following: Yesterday several officers and men crossed from Clarkville to Texas and took up quarters apparently for the night, shortly after midnight the guard at the ferries along the river, were surprised and disarmed by this party, and such lighters as were at hand were immediately seized. In these the military force at Clarksville, four hundred strong, mostly negroes, crossed over.—The garrison of Bagdad, about one hundred and, seventy-five strong, were completely surprised and captared. The commander of post and Captain of the port were taken prisoners while in bed, and it is reported that the former was killed and the latter made his escape. Upon taking the lown pillage and plunders was immediately inauguraled. Warehouses were guited and the contents crossed to the American side. The gunboat Autoria was called to surreinder which she answered with a broad-side which scattered the fillibusters. A second demand was made and answered in a similar manner. At daylight a French man-of-war in the harber opened fire, compelling the fillibusters take refuge in the upper part of the town. At last accounts the fillibusters still held the town. The deaths are reported to be thrity on each side. It is stated that the fillibusters are commanded by Col. Reed. Gen'l Crowford started from Brownsville for the scene of action. Later accounts says 1200 Imperialists left Matamoras to attack the fillibusters.

Spirit of the Stock Market.

New York, Jan: 17.—The Post says: Wall street is more animated to-day, as the belief is spreading that the most objectionable points of the Loan Bill will be removed before it is reported to Congress. The dispatch we published heretofore favors this anticipation. The loan market is inactive at 5 per cent. on arm of the law, as was done in the early colonial history of Virginia, when the Honse of Burgesses passed an act of the very character indicated. It was found that all the young men imported into the colony, were at once caught by the widows, by superior wiles and strategems, without any chance being allowed to the modest and retiring young maidens; so the legislature took the matter in hand, and will have to de so again.
